Edith Funes, APCH Asst.

Principal

- Attendance Review
 - Discuss EL needs assessment
 - Needs Assessment Document- HERE
 - Principal
 - How we can remove boundaries that are getting in the way of our students attending school. Wondering if there are common trends we can address
 - Vice Chair
 - How is it possible we have 74% of severely chronically absent students throughout our school?

I. Define Timeline of ELAC Assessments review

- Parent Survey
- Schoolwide Assessment (Achieve 3000)
- ELPAC Testing Timeline

VII. Public Comment

A. Questions or comments

- Rosalind-Math Teacher APCH
 - What number of percent are EL students who are absent?
 - Edith - This is a great question and something we would need to look further into. Potentially checking with Gloria our Data Analysis from DV.
 - What number of them are both EL students and have IEPs?
 - TBD
- Naomi-Math Teacher Hawthorne
 - I wonder how many of the students who are categorized as chronically absent are completing & submitting work independently.
TBD

- Comment- Initial barriers on how to access and be able to engage back in classes after being absent for so long.
- Edith-Vice Principal APCH
 - Do we have an option to translate their projects and assignments on DSD?
 - Erin- No, we would actually need to speak to the DSD vendor to determine this option.

VIII. Adjournment

Edith motioned to adjourn the meeting- 4:50pm.
